AN AWFUL PLUNGE

Chas. Bell, a Lineman for the Street Car Company, Falls From Pole.

His Skull Was Fractured Against the Concrete Pavement—Much Excitement.

THE VICTIM NOT YET DEAD

Mr. Charles Bell, of 407 South Eleventh street, a lineman for the Paducah Street Railway company, fell thirty feet from a telephone pole on the northwest corner of Broadway and Fourth streets this morning about 10 o'clock and was perhaps fatally injured.

A force of men had been at work for several hours stringing "any" wires on the corner, and Bell had climbed the post with a rope, to men stretching another wire.

Suddenly several persons standing on the corner were attracted by hearing him shout "Oh, oh," and as they looked in the direction where the sounds came, saw the unfortunate lineman falling. One of his feet caught on the lowest wire, several feet below the place from which he fell, and turned him over, causing him to strike on the concrete pavement head foremost, instead of on his feet. Dr. J. D. Robertson was standing in front of the drug store, within a few feet of the place the unfortunate man struck, and attempted to break the fall of the man as he saw him rapidly descending, but only succeeded in catching his hand.

Several rushed to the prostrate form at once, and found the man unconscious and gasping as if in the throes of death. A large crowd soon collected, and as soon as the patrol wagon arrived, and it was learned where he lived, he was taken home.

An examination revealed the fact that he had sustained a very bad fracture of the skull on top of the head, with recovery improbable, but was not as badly hurt as expected.

Those near him, and who had been watching him at work, say that the accident was due to the fact that the spur on his climber was stiff, and did not stick in the wood secure ly enough to hold him. He wriggled one leg around the pole, as he had done hundreds of times before, in order to have both hands free to throw the rope over a wire, and the weight of his entire body was thrown onto the spur on the other leg. It gave way, and there was no way he could catch himself.

Mr. Bell came here about a year ago from Shawneetown, Ill., and worked for the East Tennessee Telephone company until about December 1st, when he went with the street car company. He has a wife and several children and is about 35 years old.

HAD GOOD CASH

BUT THE ROBBERS FAILED TO GET ANY OF IT.

Stanford, Ky., Jan. 15.—The vault of the Lincoln National bank here was opened with dynamite at 2 o'clock this morning, and an unsuccessful attempt made to blow the inner safe, which was wrecked, but not opened.

The safe contained $15,000 in cash. The robbers escaped, leaving no clue.

FURNACE MAY START

Chicago Man Here This Morning Looking Over the Field in Paducah

Inspected the Iron Furnace on South Third Street—Would Not Talk.

WAGON MANUFACTURERS HERE TODAY

Mr. H. B. Earhart, of Chicago, who is understood to be backed by big capital, arrived in the city this morning and early in the day called on President George C. Thompson of the American-German bank, and on Congressman Ed Woolfolk.

His main inspection of the iron furnace on South Third street, which was run a few months about a year and a half ago and left at noon for St. Louis.

Mr. Earhart is an expert and it is understood is one of the men who was with Mr. Frank Eagle, of Milwaukee, who secured an option on the furnace several months ago, but for some reason did not lease it. He was sent here to investigate the advisability of running the furnace.

Mr. Earhart declined to talk when seen at the train by a reporter, except to say that he would probably return to Paducah in about two weeks. He was here merely to inspect the furnace and it is hoped will decide in run it.

Two gentlemen from West Virginia are here today being shown over the city by Secretary Dains, of the Commercial club. They desire to locate a wagon factory, and will probably find Paducah an admirable location as they could wish. They are not yet ready to give out plans.

IN THE COURTS

The Allen Damage Suit Still on Trial in Circuit Court.

Only a few unimportant cases in the Police Court this morning.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Allen damage suit is still on trial in the circuit court. This afternoon several witnesses have been examined.

This afternoon Dr. Millam was on the stand. He is the first physician that has testified in the case, and the others will be called later on. The plaintiff's witnesses are still holding the stand, and several remain to be heard.

The case of Mrs. Ellithorpe against the Danneys for $6000 damages, for alleged conspiracy to take her husband away, is set for the 18th day of the term.

The case of George Emery against Constable Phil Hiley for selling horses in which the plaintiff claimed half interest, was submitted to the court, a jury being waived.

POLICE COURT.

George Edwards, colored, was fined $5 and costs for plain drunk.

John Mix, white, was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

Lewis Gristner and Lettie Blackburn, colored, were each fined $20 and the costs for immorality.

Robert Greer, colored, was tried this morning for carrying concealed a deadly weapon. His case was left open until tomorrow morning.

Jim Hale was released this morning on his own recognizance to appear before the grand jury during the April term to answer for the charge of immorality shooting.

A FAMOUS PET DOG.

Conductor W. Y. Hunsboro the well known C. & O. ticket puncher, brought his pet canine, "Dick," through the city this morning. Mr. Hunsboro thinks more of his dog than most other people of their children and the animal has received more flattering press notices than an ordinary politician. The dog is an unusually smart dog and can perform many tricks at the bidding of his master. "Dick" did not think much of Paducah and would hardly leave the train when it stopped at the depot.

THE HOWARD CASE

Frankfort, Jan. 15.—Wharton Golden, who testified in the other cases, this morning testified in the Jim Howard case as in other trials.

The commonwealth rested at noon, and the defense began the introduction of testimony this afternoon.

MAJOR SAUNDERS' CALLERS.

Deputy U. S. Marshal G. W. Saunders who resides in Mayfield, was visited by burglars night before last. Mr. John Cosby, who was staying with the family during the major's absence, heard the marauders and shot at him, but missed.

Dr. Jennelle's Tooth Powder, the only perfect dentifrice. Used by refined people. Sold by all druggists.

PROMPT STEPS TAKEN

The Commercial Club to Urge the Establishment of Army Post.

It Indorses Two of the Three Recommendations from Louisville's Commercial Club.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS OF THE MEETING

The Commercial club held an enthusiastic meeting last night. The first and perhaps the most important matter discussed was that of an army post, to be located near Paducah, and which will require 20,000 acres of land.

After favorable remarks, Hon. Charles Reed moved that a profile of land be forwarded to the government, together with options on it, thus intelligently and formally presenting Paducah's claims to consideration in the matter. The motion prevailed, and the following are on the committee appointed: Messrs. Chas. Reed, L. S. Dubois, J. M. Lang, F. L. Scott, S. B. Caldwell, J. L. Friedman, Sel Dreyfuss, Thos. Reid and L. Y. Craig.

Messrs. Henry Petter, W. P. Hummell and W. F. Bradshaw were appointed on a committee to go before the city council and secure its cooperation.

It was decided, on recommendation of Mr. Will Hummell, of the advertising committee, that the transportation committee confer with the railroads relative to the extensions to be run into the city this spring and summer.

A communication from the Louisville Commercial club was read, proposing three amendments to the laws desired, and the co-operation of the Commercial club of Paducah asked. One was as to the placing in the hands of every city the power to regulate municipal taxation, another to repeal the double liability clause relative to corporations, and the third as to a bureau of publicity.

The club readily adopted the last two, but defeated the first, about municipal taxation.

Subsequently, however, on motion of Hon. Charles Reed to reconsider, a committee was appointed to write the Louisville board for a more lucid statement of what it desired respecting the municipal taxation law. The committee is composed of Messrs. H. Wallerstein, Charles Wailie and Ed Ashbrook.

CAUGHT IN MEMPHIS.

E. L. McGehee, WANTED HERE ON AN INDICTMENT, CAPTURED.

E. L. McGehee, the man who, it is alleged, shot changed Mrs. George Rawlins several months ago, and who was indicted by the grand jury for the offense, has been caught. A telegram was received this afternoon early from the Memphis authorities saying that McGehee had been caught, and would not return without requisition papers.

McGehee tried to prove an alibi at the trial in police court, but was held over, and when released on his own recognizance skipped out. He will be returned to the city as soon as papers can be secured.

STILL THEY COME

YOUNG MEN FROM CALVERT CITY JOIN THE ARMY.

Corporal Shackelford, the recruiting officer, enlisted yesterday the following recruits, who will leave for Columbus, Ohio, on the 18th of this month for drilling, and then for the Philippines for active service: G. H. Recker, Marton Skillian and Horace Story, all of Calvert City.

The regular army is a better service than the volunteer service, and many who had seen active service in the volunteer army have joined the regulars. The pay is about the same, and the opportunity to see some of the world is too strong to resist, and this trip the officer has secured more recruits than any of his predecessors.

NOT YET IN CHARGE.

Today is the day that Major George Saunders, the newly appointed U. S. deputy marshal for this district, was to have taken charge of his office but through a delay in the arrangement of his bond he did not arrive and the office is still unoccupied. He will probably arrive in a day or two and take charge of the office.

APPEAL CASE DISMISSED.

The case of H. H. Scott administrator of Tenuio Greenhill, against Julia Sperry, appealed from this court, was today dismissed and damages awarded. It was a suit on a note for $1,200.

SMALLPOX AT MAYFIELD.

There is considerable excitement over the discovery of another case of smallpox in Mayfield. Mrs. Ed Frey is the name of the victim but she has a mild attack. It is thought she caught it from a tramp who called at the door for something to eat.

POSTMASTER FISHER AGAIN WINS

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—Mr. Frank M. Fisher was appointed postmaster at Paducah today, the new term beginning February 16. Mr. Fisher, with Representatives Wheeler and Boreing, called on the President today. Both Mr. Fisher and the other applicant, Mr. Bebout, have been in the city several days. The re-appointment of Mr. Fisher was sent to the senate today.

THE MOB WAS FOILED

Desperate Fight at the Flemingsburg Jail To Lynch Murderer.

Frankfort, Jan. 15.—The Frankfort military company and Lexington gaiting gen were sent to Flemingsburg today to prevent the lynching of Charles Gaskins, the negro murderer of Jim Ryan, white, now on trial. A determined mob tried for two hours last night to storm the jail, and lynch Gaskins. The jail door was battered down, windows were smashed and the guard is fought fiercely, two being wounded and some of the mob wounded by a dynamite bomb, which exploded near the jail, but did little harm.

The military company arrived this afternoon.

NO MIDWAY.

This Part of the Carnival Will Be Superseded By "Jubilee Court."

Carnival Representatives Have Now Left the City—Gaskins Favored.

The Elks executive committee has decided that there will be no midway this year. Instead of the midway there will be a "Jubilee Court," on which there will be six free attractions, and a number of those that require an entrance fee. It is thought that this plan will prove more successful than the midway did last year.

Mr. Gaskins of the Canton Carnival company, has left the city. He made a splendid proposition, and the committee knows that they can rely on what he says. It is more than probable that the contract for furnishing the attractions will be let to him. This will be decided, however, when Mr. J. J. Read, the absent member of the committee, returns from Owensboro.

IN TWO MONTHS.

THE NEW TRUST COMPANY WILL START INTO BUSINESS.

Messrs. H. H. Loving and Charles E. Jennings, of the newly organized trust company, left today for Louisville and other cities to inspect the trust company's establishments and learn all they can relative to the business preparatory to drawing up their articles of incorporation.

They have ordered the furnishings of their building, and will pay $5000 for them, which will include a safe. These will not be here for some time, and it is estimated that about two months will be required to get ready for business.

The new building will be overhauled and greatly improved, fitting to be placed on the floor.

THE LEGISLATURE.

NEW BILLS IN THE SENATE INTRODUCED TODAY.

Frankfort, Jan. 15.—There was a flood of new bills in the senate today, the review of the whipping post to punish wife beaters.

One by Coleman is to reappoint the eleven congressional districts.

The Sun has removed to the old News stand, 115 South Third street.

Big Sporting Park Project Promises to Go Through in a Short Time.

Would Combine Baseball, Football, Race Course and Gun Club Grounds.

THE BASEBALL CLUBS TALKED OF

There is a movement on foot to establish a sporting park in Paducah, with a base ball diamond, race course, gun club shooting field, football gridiron and golf links—in fact, a general athletic field. The athletes and sportsmen about town have long felt the need of such a place, and think it would pay if built. The idea was suggested last summer, but too late to take any action towards its construction then. Now that the summer season is approaching, the scheme is again being talked of, and several moneyed men of the city are very much in favor of building the park, and have offered substantial support.

In making a combination of the park as above mentioned the expenses can be easily made at any of the different sports, and no one sport depended on to pay. The company which proposes to do the work is composed of men who do little talking but much work, and it is thought that Paducah will be well fixed this year for a base ball park and general sporting grounds. Last year Paducah had a good base ball team, but lacked a park and little of the sport was witnessed here on that account. The park will enable the boys to secure games with out of town clubs and a little profit can thereby be realized and a good game witnessed by those who like it.

The site for the park has been suggested at the La Belle park, but no definite action has been taken yet. The local sports will have a talk with the men who propose to build the park soon, and then something more definite will be settled.

If the park is built, then the company will receive 25 per cent for the use, and the remainder of the proceeds go to the renters of the park. The plan would probably not pay for a base ball park alone, but combined with grounds for several other sports, its success is assured.

The local fans are now preparing to get a base ball club for the coming season, and with the material in Paducah a crack team can be organized. There is really enough material in the city to make two good teams, but the surplus will probably be used as extra men to alternate in the game with the other players who are injured or not able to play.

Mr. Jerome Smith, the well known blacksmith, is in the city again, and will make this his home. He caught in the old team, and is one of the best catchers in the state. Mr. Mike Hergraff of Louisville, who resided in Paducah several years ago, will return and become a member of the team.

Messrs. Newton Atkinson and Robert Atkinson, formerly of Murray, are now making Paducah their home, and will make valuable additions to the team. There are many other players in the city, and Paducah will be well supplied with base ball material. As soon as a manager is secured the team will be organized, and when the first winter comes practice will begin. The boys intend to do more practicing than last year, and make a champion team.

The members of the High School football team will probably occupy a box at the Kentucky tonight. Several are in favor of the arrangement, but it is thought that the entire team will occupy the box.

This summer the football team will be turned into a base ball team, to compete with teams from the neighboring cities. Several members of the football team are the base ball players, and a strong team can be gotten up with little effort.

SMALL FIRE

BUT LITTLE DAMAGE—DEPARTMENT HORSE IS IMPROVING.

The fire department was called to the residence of Dr. W. C. Enbanks, corner Fourth and Madison streets last night about 10 o'clock, to extinguish a small blaze originating from a defective fire. No damage was done.

"George" the horse injured in the runaway several weeks ago, is fast improving, and will be ready for use again in a month it is thought. He is still suffering from swollen joints in his hind legs, but the firemen are doctoring him and think he will pull around him again be of service to the department.

TIME EXTENDED.

The time of the county supervisors has been extended five days by Judge Lightfoot, as they were unable to finish in the ten days granted by law. They will work five days longer and then be in session five days to hear protests.

Preparations For the Big Concatenation of Hoo Hoos Here Next Saturday.

THE VICTIMS NUMBER THIRTEEN

The local Hoo Hoos or "Black Cats" are making great preparations for the big concatenation on the 18th of the month, next Saturday.

It will be held at 9 o'clock on that night, and following that will be a big banquet at the Palmer House, which will be served to at least one hundred members of the order. The local lodge has a membership of about forty-five, and over thirty delegates are expected from neighboring cities, not from Memphis, Nashville, St. Louis and many other larger cities in this district.

The following is a list of the prominent members who will attend the concatenation which will be the first since last May: Messrs. W. E. Barnes, of St. Louis, a member of the house of nobles, J. H. Baird, of Nashville, the Schriener motor (secretary), Joe Cable of Memphis, and E. H. Eastling of Brook Haven, Miss., a big lumber man of the South.

Mr. Barnes stands number 8 in the list of members, having been one of the originals in effecting the organization of the order. The members think this will be the biggest meeting in the history of the order, and about thirteen applicants will be examined and initiated into the order.

MUCH EXCITEMENT.

GREEK AND ETHIOPIAN HAVE TROUBLE AT SECOND AND COURT.

William H. Greek, one of the proprietors of the Greek restaurant on lower Court street, near Second, and Arch Staton, a colored resident on the Clyde, had a lively fight in the restaurant at noon today.

Staton entered the restaurant and ordered lunch, which was served him. Greek was then engaged in talking to a customer when Staton told him to shut up. He repeated the command, and Greek asked him what he meant by it. The negro replied with an oath and struck at Greek with a stool. He then whipped out a knife, but before he could use it Greek had seized him and began to drive him out.

Staton ran to the river, and the police were notified of the trouble. Officers Orr, Harlan and Woods chased him to the Ways docks, where he was captured. He will probably be charged with malicious assault. A large crowd was attracted to the scene of the encounter.

OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN

Capt. Jas. Koger Again Manager of the Tennessee River Packet Co.

Captains Leyha Are Elected Officers in the Eagle Packet Company, at St. Louis.

MEETINGS WERE HELD YESTERDAY

Two important meetings were held in St. Louis yesterday afternoon, in which gentlemen well known in Paducah were interested.

The St. Louis and Tennessee Packet company, which runs the steamers Clyde and Tennessee, held its annual meeting, and elected officers.

Mr. Isaac T. Rhea of Nashville was re-elected president, Captain John Manacauld of St. Louis secretary and treasurer, and Captain James Koger of Paducah vice president and general manager. Captain Koger arrived in St. Louis yesterday morning to attend the meeting. Others present were: I. T. Rhea, Nashville; Leo Howell, Evansville; T. S. Hughes, Clinton, and Dr. Burlew of Savannah.

The company is in splendid condition, and has done well the past year.

The Eagle Packet company held a meeting at St. Louis yesterday afternoon and elected officers. The board of directors, from which the list of officers is made up, is as follows: Captains Henry and William Leyha, G. W. Hill, T. T. Lewis and J. W. Priato.

This is the company owned by the Messrs. Leyha, now in the city, and who have been bringing their monster fleet of boats to Paducah every year for a winter harbor. They now have many of them, with barges, up at Deek's Nest, above the city. Captain Leyha is the principal officer in the company.

ARRESTED IN MAYFIELD.

TWO WOMEN CAUGHT THERE BROUGHT HERE TODAY.

Rosie Lee and Lettie Downey were arrested in Mayfield last night on a warrant charging them with grand larceny. They are charged with having stolen from Lucile Agnew, a Court street woman of Paducah, several dresses and some other women's wearing apparel. Officers Boldree and Welsh of Mayfield arrived in the city with the women at noon today, to await trial tomorrow morning.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH US?

Paducah needs more get-up-and-get in her people. If anyone should come along and say that Paducah was not a big, growing, up-to-date city, we should all resent it, and declare that we had misrepresented the facts. Yet we have the same old country ways we had twenty years ago. Yes, we all know it, and know it is unworthy of us as a proud, progressive people. We know that we should all do something to lift Paducah from the rut and adopt modern ways.

We have a sewerage system in perhaps the most important portion of the city, yet only about one-fourth of the people who reside in that district, and among whom are our best and most aristocratic, have connected with the sewerage, and so far as now seems probable, they never will, because they don't want to, don't have to and aren't made to. They haven't been raised to appreciate the uses of sanitary sewerage, and can't get over their old ways.

We have miles and miles of level streets, streets that should be of some thing prettier and more substantial than cheap gravel. Yet for years and years, while other cities, and many smaller ones, such as Owensboro and Henderson, have been busy putting down asphalt streets or brick streets, we have been wasting thousands of dollars a year in bad gravel, and today have nothing to show for it except the same kind of streets we had twenty or twenty-five years ago. In fact, we have worse streets, because then there was better gravel, and the traffic was not so great as now, and consequently the streets were better. The reason we haven't modern streets today is because some of the people can't get over their country ways. They will be perfectly content to keep on buying bad gravel and dumping it on the street as long as they live, "because it's always been done that way." It seems impossible to infuse any enterprize into the people, especially the council.

In other cities the size of Paducah and even in those much smaller, the streets in summer are sprinkled with a public expense. It keeps down the dust, preserves the streets and makes the city and people healthier and happier. In Paducah all but a few blocks of streets are covered with dirt, often half a foot deep, and if wet, weather it is all mud. The people do not seem to care for sprinkling the streets. It is suggested that a tax be levied among other things, for sprinkling streets at public expense, there is immediately an ominous howl heard in many quarters. To save a few dollars they would rather have the "dust"—not frequently less than twice the amount of the tax in doctors' bills.

In scores of cities in the country the size of Paducah and even smaller—all those larger do it—have public garbage carts. People have places to deposit their garbage, and it is called for regularly and hauled away at the expense of the city. It costs something to be sure, but not enough to be noticed in paying one's annual tax, and filth-smelling, unsanitary and disease-breeding filth is hauled away and permanently disposed of. In Paducah it is allowed to lay where it happens to be deposited, and contaminates the atmosphere until it rots. There is absolutely no method of taking garbage from about four-fifths of the city, if not in fact from the entire city. There are a few private wagons that carry it off every few days, but most of it is omitted into alleys, gutters and yards, instead of being carted away as it should be. Yet the people do not seem to realize that indifference to such filth violates the most important laws of health, and sanitation. They do not seem to care. A great many of them do not appear ever to have heard of sanitation and health. If they have, their carelessness indicates that they certainly overlook the importance of what they know about it.

The city council now has up the

LIKE A FLAME

Advertising is a faithful advocate, and to the merchant whose trade is dull and who desires to increase his business advertising is like a flame to a dark night.—Thomas Dunning, Lowell, Mass.

master of increasing the pay of the man who keeps a garbage dump. It pays him $30 a month to allow garbage to be hauled out and dumped into the river from his float. Why not adopt some other method of disposing of garbage, in place of simply paying a man to allow all who care to have their garbage hauled away, to dump it off his float? Why not have regular wagons employed to remove it, as they do in cities, and then compel the merchants to sweep their sidewalks and onto the gutters? This sort of thing won't do in a city the size of Paducah, and of Paducah's importance and progressiveness. It is time to stop it and adopt modern methods, if we ever expect to have the right kind of a city.

The ladies of the Civic Federation should take up a few of these matters. The members of the council have completely ignored them in the past, and will probably do so in the future, for they do not seem to know that there is such a thing as sanitation or such a thing as having an attractive city.

AGAIN FIGHTING CAPITAL.

The same forces that have for years past been diligently at work oppressing capital, driving it from the state and frightening it to other and more friendly places is now at work again in the legislature, ostensibly intent on completing its infamous work of destruction. It has done its utmost to discourage every form of enterprise, has secured arbitrary control of the railroads, laid a heavy hand on every corporation in the state, and is still ignorantly or maliciously seeking to further impair the business interests of the people.

It was only a few days ago that a bill was introduced in the legislature requiring all telephone companies to use at least "one place in each town or city to connect with each other's lines and provide suitable apparatus by which lines owned by different telephone companies or persons may be connected or plugged together in such a manner that a person using a telephone of one company may use the line of another company, without such service the same rate shall be charged as for using a pay station telephone in the same place."

There was never a more pernicious or unjust provision penned since the commonwealth of Kentucky was established. It means simply that such a law would empower one man or company, without experience, capital or enterprise, to come into a city and compel some other company, which may have worked its way up and built up its patronage by years of experience, invested thousands of dollars and just begun to reap some of the profits of its investment, to give the former the full benefit of its service. It means that somebody could put up a few poles and wires in Paducah or any other place and compel the local telephone company to connect with it, either to all parts of the city, or to the long distance line, whenever it asked or demanded. It would enable one telephone company to do business practically over the wires of a competitor. It would compel one company, that has spent thousands of dollars improving and perfecting its system, to allow a competitor to use it as an auxiliary at any time, and thus to secure business on the strength of it, and greatly to the injury and detriment of the first named company's business.

Its workings would be equivalent to a law requiring the American Express company to carry all the freight taken to it by the Adams or the Southern Express companies. It would be the same thing as a law compelling a man who has put up a $100,000 building to give over a part of it for a shoe shop, a bowling alley, or to display his competitor's goods. It is so manifestly unjust that it should be promptly lost in the committee room.

Along the same lines the Louisville Commercial says, regarding legal injustice already notorious in Kentucky:

"The law as to damages is uncertain to a degree that greatly disturbs business and the relations of business men. A man applies to a railroad or factory for work; he knows the dangers of the occupation, and yet when he meets with an accident he at once goes into court with a suit for damages. A man stabs his toe on an uneven place in the sidewalk, and straightway hires him to a lawyer to try to collect his share of the plunder from the city. A newspaper states that this man or that 'was guilty of stealing a horse, and it develops that he stole a mule, and the law permits him to bring a damage suit against the paper. True, he is likely to get small damages, but he is technically entitled to his costs, if the jury is minded to strain a point, as usual, against a corporation."

"If a man is damaged through the carelessness or wantonness of a corporation or individual, a jury ought to award him his actual damages, but the courts should be very careful not to allow punitive damages except in properly punish the person at fault, and not as a salve to the feelings of the person injured. And where the damage to the complainant has not been due to the negligence or maliciousness of the defendant, there should be no punitive damages. Corporations or employers or newspaper publishers are not infallible, and they should not be mulcted in punitive damages for errors or accidents that are practically unavoidable in the ordinary and necessary conduct of their business. And the law should discourage the prevalent policy of the lawyers and claimants who convert the halls of justice into mere claim courts, where the luckless defendants are regarded as prisoners' prizes. Righting wrongs is all right, but prosecuting the law's processes to recover what they have lost, but rather to inflict wrongs upon and to commit piracy against others, under the cover of legal technicalities, is surely against public policy."

The necessity of keeping a curb on the tongues of army and navy officers is well illustrated by the protests that are now being received from Argentina. Captain Perry, of the battleship Iowa, was invited to a banquet in Ohio, and naturally felt like saying something that would in a way show his gratitude. When he opened his mouth he put his foot in it. He responded to a toast and is quoted as having said: "I hope that this country will never find itself involved in war; but, in any case, there can be no doubt that it would obtain a splendid success."

Now as Chile and Argentina are at odds, such a statement from a representative of this government was naturally regarded as offensive by Argentina, for even if Chile and Argentina should become involved in war, and Chile should "obtain a splendid success," it would be none of our business, and not a matter for a representative of our government publicly to discuss, especially when it is by no means certain that it would end that way. Whether such public expressions are meant to be harmful or not, they are harmful, for signifyingly speaking they are tramping on some one's toes, and evoke something like this, which is an editorial in one of the Argentine papers commenting on Captain Perry's utterances:

"We desire that the United States may receive notice of a toast which was given in Talcahuana, Chile, by the commander of the United States battleship Iowa. The commander of the American man-of-war cannot speak in this manner without compromising his government, especially at the moment when there are yet echoes of war about."

Mayor Yeiser has ordered the police to enforce the law, and the ordinance prohibiting the running at large of cows is a law. The Town Cow is always a nuisance, perhaps not so much now as she will be later on. But the law ought to be enforced. So long as it is not, the people will not cease to turn their cows loose. If the people report a few cases where roaming cows have been ignored by officers, it is likely some step would be taken to have the ordinance enforced. It is certainly unjust for the police to have to waste their time chasing cows, but if the mayor does not want them to do it he should devise some other means of having the law enforced. We must get rid of the cow.

LIBERTY IN KENTUCKY.

The message to the Kentucky legislature by the man who occupies the governor's seat at present declares grandiloquently that life and liberty are safe in Kentucky. Mr. Beckham is impelled to make this statement, which is a remarkable one, to put in to an address to a state legislature, because the attention of the nation has been directed to Kentucky by the remarkable series of prosecutions known as the Goebel trials. With the facts in these cases fresh in the minds of newspaper readers, Mr. Beckham will be unable to convince impartial observers that "it is a fact that the supremacy of the law in Kentucky today is such as to give every citizen as perfect a guarantee of protection to life, liberty or property as can be found in any state in the union."

While Gov. Beckham was penning these lines Attorney General Sheets of Ohio, was subscribing to a fund, the object of which is to pay the legal expenses of another attempt to obtain justice for Caleb Powers and writing this opinion: "With $100,000 to suborn witnesses, with a man like Cantrell on the bench and 'Tom' Campbell to prosecute the case, no man they might select would be free from conviction."

Two successive governors of Indiana have refused to surrender Gov. Taylor to be cantrellized in Kentucky because of their conviction that he would not receive a fair trial. This is the opinion outside of Kentucky of the guarantee of protection to life and liberty afforded by the laws of the state—Pittsburg Chronicle-Tribune.

EMPLOYEES WARNED.

RAILROAD GENERAL MANAGERS TAKE UNUSUAL STEPS.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Owing to the series of disastrous wrecks which have occurred within the last six months the general superintendents of many of the railroads centering in Chicago are sending a special circular letter to the employees in the operation of passenger and freight trains.

The circulars are "heart-to-heart talks," which will undoubtedly result in extraordinary precautions being observed. In general the circulars call attention to the wrecks occurring recently and suggest that in the majority of cases an exercise of ordinary precaution and a strict attention to orders and duty would have averted the disasters.

A LIFE AT STAKE.

If you but knew the splendid merit of Foley's Honey and Tar you would never be without it. A dose or two will prevent an attack of pneumonia or grippe. It may save your life. J. C. GILBERT.

A JURY OF HIS PEERS.

An interior Ohio newspaper takes the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune to task for its earnest efforts to raise a defense fund to enable Caleb Powers to appeal his case from the Scott county circuit court to the Kentucky court of appeals, and reminds its Queen City contemporary that "twelve men, all his peers," found him guilty of the murder of Senator Goebel.

The Commercial Tribune in its stirring daily appeals for Powers twelves upon the injustice and indecency of Judge Cantrell's refusal to vacate the bench upon the second trial of the Powers case, after it had once been reversed on his errors and after he had boasted from the senatorial stump that his partisan decisions had overthrown the Republican state government and robbed Powers and his associates of the offices to which they had been elected; but it overlooks an even more reprehensible feature of the case, the method by which a solidly Democratic trial jury was insured even in drawing names from a wheel, which does not seem to be fully understood and appreciated even here in Kentucky.

In October, 1900, after Caleb Powers had been convicted for the first time, and while an appeal was pending which it was universally believed would result in a second trial, Judge Cantrell appointed three Goebel Democrats as jury commissioners of Scott county, where Powers was tried, to fill the jury wheel for the three 1901 terms of the Cantrell court in that county.

The three Goebelite commissioners put about 300 names into the wheel, and as every name has since been drawn out for jury service it is easy to figure out the political complexion of the original wheel from the records of the court.

Of the 300 names put into the wheel out of which it was known Caleb Powers' jury must be drawn in the event of a second trial, all but five turn out to have been those of patrian Goebel Democrats. Of the five "black sheep" whose names got into the box, four were Republicans and one an anti-Goebel Democrat. The names have all been drawn out in securing the Powers and other juries during the year, and are matters of record in Judge Cantrell's court.

Scott county juries about 2300 Goebelite votes and 2000 Republican and anti-Goebel Democratic votes. Learning out of consideration say 200 independent Democrats and 700 negroes, there are easily 1000 white Republicans and 2300 Goebel Democrats in the county. On this basis a jury wheel of 300 names ought to contain the names of about 100 Republicans.

And now for the significance of the political preponderance of this Scott county jury wheel.

In criminal cases in Kentucky the prosecution is entitled to five peremptory challenges without explanation or cause. Therefore, if by some unaccountable and almost impossible freak of chance every anti-Goebel name in the jury wheel had been drawn out during the jurying of the Powers jury, and not one of them had been excused for disqualifying cause, it would have been in the power of the prosecution to peremptorily challenge every one of the five and still insure a solidly Democratic jury.

In taking names from the wheel for jury service the lone anti-Goebel Democrat was drawn for the February term of court; one of the Republicans was drawn for the May term, and the remaining three Republican names came out during the October term in drawing the Powers jury. Two of these were excused for cause, the third was peremptorily challenged by the prosecution, and Caleb Powers was left to the mercy of twelve partisan Goebel Democrats.

This is a mathematical demonstration of partisanship under "forms of law" that illustrates the methods by which Caleb Powers was a second time convicted by a "jury of his peers."—Lexington Leader.

A LARGE HOUSE.

TONIGHT "UPS AND DOWNS OF LIFE" WILL BE PRESENTED.

The Myrkle-Harler stock company presented "Knots of Tennessee" last night to a large and appreciative audience. The company has made itself popular in two performances, and will doubtless have crowded houses every night. The plays it presents are a first class, being the same as those a great many people have paid a dollar to see. The members of the company are all artists, and the specialties changed every night. The company deserves the success it is making. "Ups and Downs of Life," an English melodrama from the pen of Oliver Bond Byron, will be the offering of the company at the Kentucky tonight. In this play there is said to be one of the most realistic fire scenes ever produced on any stage. All the scenery in the first act will be enclosed in asbestos curtains, making it perfectly safe. The reputation of the Myrkle and Harler Co. is now established in Paducah and it is safe to predict for them a record breaking week at the Kentucky.

ILLINOIS' BIGGEST TREE.

IT IS SAWED INTO LUMBER AND MAKES 8,000 FEET.

Flora, Ill., Jan. 1.—The largest tree in Southern Illinois, according to lumbermen who are acquainted with the lumber industry in this section of the state, has been felled and sawed into lumber for the market. The tree, a mammoth cottonwood, stood on the farm of Charles Crickman, in the bottoms of the Little Wobash river, northeast of this city, and contained 8,000 feet of merchantable lumber. The diameter of the giant specimen was seven feet, and the tallest man in the neighborhood could not see over the logs as they lay on the ground. A 12-foot log on the first limb cut 600 feet of lumber. When sawed into box stuff the lumber brought $110.

REPORTED WHITECAPS.

NEGRO ORDERED TO LEAVE THE MAXON'S MILLS SECTION.

A negro employed on the farm of Wright and Blacklock, of Mayfield, near Maxon's Mills, this county, was visited a few nights ago and ordered to leave the neighborhood. The man is said to be a good workman and an offensive man, and Mr. Wright, on his way back from Mayfield, who was in the city yesterday afternoon, stated that he gave the negro instructions to remain, and defend himself if necessary. He says he will stand by him, and spend $300 if necessary for the conviction of each whitecap.

ARE QUICK TO SEE

GOOD DOCTORS ARE QUICK TO SEE AND APPRECIATE REAL MERIT IN NEW MEDICINES.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a discovery of great value to the medical profession and the public. They are an unfailing specific in all cases of dyspepsia and disordered digestion.

Almost everybody's digestion is disordered more or less, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some one of the many so-called blood purifiers, which in many cases are merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed. If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the sensitive linings of the stomach and bowels and often do more harm than good.

Purgings is not what is needed. The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help it needs. They stimulate the secretion and exertion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes. They put the whole digestive system in condition to do its work. When that is done you need take no more tablets, unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—give them needed help and you will have no trouble.

It is a common sense medicine and a common sense treatment and it will cure every time. Not only cure the disease but cure the cause. Goes about it in a perfectly sensible and scientific way.

We have testimonials enough to fill a book, but we don't publish many of them. However—Mrs. E. M. Faith of Byrd's Creek, Wis., says: "I have taken all the tablets I got of you and they have done their work well in my case, for I feel like a different person altogether. I don't doubt if I had not got them I should have been at rest by this time."

H. E. Willard, Onslow, Ia., says: "Mr. White of Canton, was telling me of your Dyspepsia Tablets curing him of dyspepsia from which he had suffered for eight years. As I am a sufferer myself I wish you to send me a package by return mail."

"Hill Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: "Your dyspepsia cure has worked wonders in my case. I suffered for years from dyspepsia but am now entirely cured and enjoy life as I never have before. I gladly recommend them."

It will cost 50c to find out just how much Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will help you. Try them—that's the best way to decide.

All druggists sell them. A little book on stomach diseases will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. Observations ...at Random

The following parody on "Old Oakum Bucket" is by Dr. J. C. Bayles, president of the New York Board of Health, and in addition to being funny, contains some good pointers on sanitation:

With what anguish of mind I remember my childhood,
It called in the light of a knowledge since gained,
The malarious farm, the wet fungus-grown willow,
The chills then contracted that since have remained;
The semi-corrugated duck pond, the pig sty close by it,
The ditch where the sour-smelling house drainage fell,
The damp, shaded dwelling, the foul barnyard tug it—
But worse than all else was that terrible well,
And the old oakum bucket, the mold-erusted bucket,
The moss-covered bucket that hung in the well.

Just think of it! Moss on the vessel that lifted
The water I drank in the days called to mind;
I knew what protozoans and bacteria gifted
In the waters of wells by analysis find;
The rotting wood fiber, the oiled iron,
The algae, the frog of unusual size,
The water, impure as the tears of Hyeron,
Are things I remember with tears in my eyes.

And to tell the sad truth—the I shoulder to think of it—
I considered that water uncommonly dear,
And often at noon, when I went there to drink it,
I enjoyed it as much as I now enjoy beer.

How ardent I seized it with hands that were grimy,
And quick to the mud-covered bottom it fell,
Then, reeking with nitrates and nitrates, and slimy
With matter organic it rose from the well.

Oh, had I but realized in time to avoid them—
The dangers that lurked in that pestilent draft—
I'd have tested for organic germs and destroyed them—
With potassium permanganate ore I had treated.

Or perchance I'd have boiled it, and after I'd strained it Through filters of charcoal and gravel combined;
Or, after distilling, condensed and re-distilled it
In potable form, with its fifth left behind.

How little I knew of the enteric fever
Which lurked in the water I ventured to drink,
But since I've become a devoted believer
In the teachings of science, I shudder to think.

And now, far removed from the scenes I'm describing,
The story of warning to others I tell,
As memory reverts to my youthful fondling,
And I gag at the thought of that horrible well,
And the old oakum bucket, the fungus-grown bucket—
In fact, the slop bucket—that hung in the well.

down some twenty feet, when there came a jerk on the line that was fierce in the extreme. There was a game of cat-and-mouse for a few minutes, and then the line came up with a rush, never stopping until it had leaped clear out of the water. Oh, it was a dandy! I had the slack taken upon my line before the fish hit water again, and I kept the old fighter well in hand until I landed it. It never got an opportunity to hunt its hole again.

"I have watched fish going in and out of holes in the sunken trees like bees, and I have seen the monster gar and catfish sailing around in the timber like birds. The cats would grab at the roots, but his garish preferred to remain around the timbers as if in pursuit of fethered food. The festive little sunfish are often seen playing tag among the branches of the trees, and sometimes the old bass come into the game, and when they do they are 'it' sure as you are alive. We fish for crappie nearer the shore than for bass, but there are thousands of the fish in the sunken timber lakes, and they cannot be fished out. As the lakes gradually slope up in places the trees come above the water. These are great places for ducks in season. Many a one is killed on windy days around the timber lakes. If anyone wants to see a natural phenomena, and get the finest kind of fishing, let him come over to Paducah and hunt up Jim Robertson, that's mo, and I will take great pleasure in showing them how to fish among the tree tops. Last fall the tops of the trees were showing in many places, owing to the long drought, but the fishing was finer than ever." After this recital "Truthful James" lapsed into silence, and gazed at the pigeons flying in and out of the cotton house dome. "Those fool birds remind me of the fish swimming about the hollow trees of Big Timber lake," concluded the Kentucky journalist, with a sigh.

The people of this section of the country are very much amused over the way the yellow journals—and those of the white variety, also—have been treating the supposed discovery of wireless telephony by one Nathan Stubblefield, of near Murray, Calloway county. We should like to claim the distinction of having such a wonderful invention credited to a person of our section, but there is no truth in the report that wireless telephony has been discovered. The story sounds quite nice, and will naturally be some little time before the yarn is fully exploded, hence the papers are making the most of it while the sun shines. Stubblefield, the inventor, is the same fellow who a few years ago discovered perpetual motion. This alleged discovery for a time attracted the same kind of attention the present "discovery" has, and turned out to be a fake, and is forgotten.

There are a great many remarkable things in this country, but one of the most astounding is why the Metropolis, Ill., papers are sent to Paducah by way of Carbondale, Ill., and Fulton, Ky., a distance of nearly two hundred miles, instead of across the river, a distance of twelve miles. The papers printed there on one afternoon often do not reach Paducah until noon the following day, and then on the fast train from the south. There is a mail here at 7:30 or thereabouts every morning, and the papers would come on it if the proper attention were paid to it by somebody on the Illinois side of the river. Some energetic postal inspector should investigate the methods that result in mail being carried about two hundred miles in order to get it to its destination, twelve miles away.

HERE'S A BIG CONTRACT.

ABOUT $120,000 INVOLVED IN ONE ADVERTISING DEAL.

One of the most important business events of recent years is that of newspaper advertising, which has come to be recognized as the essential oil for all commerce.

The pre-eminent importance of newspaper advertising in connection with modern retailing is illustrated by a contract which was recently entered into by a Chicago department store and a Chicago daily.

This store will use one page in the paper every day except Sundays for a year. The firm does not believe in Sunday advertising, even closing its window shades on that day. This is to enter to the extreme Sunday observance.

The amount of money involved in the transaction is about $120,000. This is one of the largest advertising contracts ever made. A number of extensive advertisers spend about $1,000,000 a year, but this firm leads in the size of appropriations for a single paper. Evidently it is not afraid to concentrate its outlay, for advertising in a newspaper of established worth.

This firm, by the way, adds to its newspaper advertising appropriation this year about $10,000 heretofore spent on circulars and other wasteful forms of so-called advertising.—Burl. Exhaur.

A Poor Way To Treat CATARRH

No one would be so foolish as to kindle the fire on top of a pot to make it boil, yet the treatment of Catarrh is often just as senseless and illogical. Douches, sprays, ointments, so-called tobacco cures, and various other applications, are diligently used, but the little good accomplished is swept away by the first breath of winter. When you attempt to cure a constitutional disease—one affecting the entire system—with purely local remedies, you are applying the fire to the top of the pot, you are doctoring symptoms, and, like thousands of others, get disappointing results. In Chronic Catarrh, the whole system becomes involved; the entire mucous membrane, or inner covering of the body, is in a state of high inflammation. The pressure of blood upon the glands and cells produce excessive secretion of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body. In this way the stomach, kidneys and intestines are often seriously affected.

The nose, throat and ears are most frequently attacked by this foul disease, because the mucous lining is exposed to the cold, damp air, which attracts the vitiated blood to the surface, causing congestion of the little blood vessels and glands, making breathing difficult and labored; the throat becomes parched and dry; the hot, watery discharge from the nose gradually changes to a yellowish color and becoming more profuse and tenacious, drops back into the throat, causing gagging and almost constant coughing to dislodge it. This offensive discharge, in spite of all precautions, finds its way into the stomach, and extreme nausea and an obstinate form of dyspepsia follow.

Blinding headaches, neuralgia of the eyes and dizziness are also symptoms of this disease, and when the inflammation reaches the delicate mechanism of the ear, hearing is lost, and, as the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, the tissues and soft bones in the head are eaten out, greatly disfiguring the face. At this stage of Catarrh the breath becomes insufferably offensive. S. S. S. is the simplest and most effective treatment for Catarrh, and when taken into the circulation reaches all parts of the system and cleanses the blood of all Catarrhal matter and restores it to a normal condition. When rich, new blood begins to flow through the veins, the obstructed glands and broken down cells resume their natural functions, and the hot and inflamed membranes are lubricated and moistened with a soothing, healing fluid that quickly brings relief to the congested parts. S. S. S. puts the blood in such perfect condition and so strengthens and invigorates the general health that the local manifestations of the disease gradually disappear, the discharge from the nose ceases, the head clears, breathing becomes easy and natural, the appetite improves, and a perfect and permanent cure is effected.

S. S. S. is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier. It contains no minerals to further poison the blood and derange the digestion, but can be taken with perfect safety in all stages and forms of Catarrh. Our physicians will gladly advise, without charge, all who write them about their case. Book on Blood and Skin Diseases free.

MARRIAGES

The Corbett-Crary Wedding is This Afternoon at 4:30.

Relative of Senator Debow Married Here
Today—One Wedding Yesterday.

An event of especial social interest is the marriage of Miss Mary E. Corbett to Mr. Arthur D. Crary of Cincinnati, this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at the First Christian church. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. W. H. Pinkerton, and there will be all the accessories of a pretty church wedding. The bride will wear white crepe de chine over silk, and the maid of honor, Miss Ella Suttle, white organza over silk. The ushers are: Messrs. John Sherwin, Edwin Wilson, Hughes McKnight, Everett
Thompson, Frank Boone, Charles Alcott, Douglas Nash, James Campbell. Mr. Tom Corbett of Memphis, a brother, will give the bride away. A number of out of town guests will be present for the occasion.

Miss Corbett is a charming and popular member of society, and the church will be crowded with her many friends to witness the ceremony.

The couple will leave at 6 p. m. for a bridal trip south, and will reside in Kansas City, Mo.

Hon. Ed Thomas, the well known young attorney at Fulton, and Miss Josephine Banks, well known young people, were married at the home of Mr. J. R. Province in Fulton last night. The groom was recently elected city attorney.

The marriage of Mr. George Honduran to Miss Elizabeth Sanders took place yesterday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock at the St. Francis de Sales church, Rev. Father Jansen officiating. Quite a number of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.

Marriage licenses were issued the following persons this morning:
Major Grubbs, aged 31, of the county, a farmer, to Lillie M. Carter, aged 17, of the county. It will make the first marriage of both, and is set for today.

J. P. Debow of Clinton, aged 31, the assistant postmaster, to Eva N. Hill of Marion, aged 25. It will make the first marriage of both. The groom is a relative of U. S. Senator Debow.

TOBACCO SALES.

Market is Better This Week Than Last.

Today the Second Sales of the Season
Were Held.

The following sales were held in Paducah this morning:
Gilbert & Co. offered 21 hogheads with undetermined rejections.
Lugs sold from $3.75 to $4.25.
Common leaf brought from 1-4 cents to 5 cents.

No good leaf was offered.
The Western District Warehouse Co.
sold eight hogheads, all that was offered, common leaf brought from $3.50 to $4.00, and lugs sold from $4.50 to $4.80, 25 cents higher than last week.

The prices on lugs are satisfactory, but the leaf market is not so good in regards to the prices to the dealer.
Yesterday the tobacco sales in Mayfield were not so good as they might have been.

There were over three hundred hogheads offered and that many rejected.
The farmers want higher prices for their leaf and hold on to their wares as long as there seems to be a chance of getting a higher price.

Hardly Little held the first auction sales at Third and Jefferson street yesterday and two wagon loads of leaf were offered.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

RALLY WEEK

The Epworth League of the Trimble street Methodist church is celebrating this as "Rally Week" in the interest of League work. The service each night is different, and is full of interest. The attendance last night was excellent, and quite a good program of musical and literary features was rendered. Rev. G. W. Banks of the Third street Methodist church made an excellent address stressing the importance of the literary work of the league. Miss Anna Larkin, the talented elocutist, gave a reading that was much enjoyed. There were several readings and recitations by League members, and some very sweet special music.

The league will have charge of the prayer meeting service tonight.

ness to Mr. Will J. Dicke, and want

The City of Pittsburg leaves Cincinnati today for Memphis.

A report reached here this evening, says a Cincinnati dispatch, that the towboat Jim Wood, with a tow of steel rails for points on the lower Ohio, struck a tow at the Rising Sun dyke. It is feared the entire fleet will be complete loss. The damage amounts to twelve barges laden with coal and steel rails.

An argument in favor of a change of the control of the beacon light service, the pilots show from the government records that the light house tender Joseph Henry, of the Sixteenth district, was in service but sixty-seven days last year and cost the treasury department $49,772.18.

A. A. McKinn and party of indianapolis, have arranged to start on a pleasure tour of the lower Mississippi and other rivers and bayons on the steamer Julia, having arranged terms for the charter of the boat. The party consists of Mr.
McKinn, his family and a number of friends. They expect to be gone about two months.

The New South leaves for New Orleans next Sunday morning.

More snow at Pittsburg and above.

There are a number of wrecks scattered between beatwaters and Louisville, and steamboats are complaining about their location. Some of the obstructions are partly covered with water and are dangerous. The law, which requires the placing of a buoy or light upon the wrecks is violated, the rivermen say. The chief complaint is made by packet owners.

The largest shipment of sugar, in one lot, to go down the Mississippi river to New Orleans was made last week. Two barges, with 7,000 bags, were towed from the plantation where it was produced. This big involve of sweets was shipped by the Cromwell and Morgan lines to New York City.

They say that the law should make it compulsory on the part of owners of steamers to make a written report of all accidents causing obstructions to the nearest port of entry, which would enable pilots to keep thoroughly posted as to location of obstructions.

The Oakland is on her way up from the south with three barges of lumber.

The Independent coal companies of Pittsburg have a number of tows loaded and ready to leave for the south on the first rise.

Captain Baker of the Ayer-Lord Tio company, has moved his office from the second story of the building at Second and Broadway to the new office on South First street.

The steamer John K. Speed arrived at Greenville Saturday, and, while rounding out, a steamship collapsed, and, in answer to her distress signals,
the tag of the Clifton Clements Coal company went to her assistance, landing her at the United States government float, where her repairs were made, and she passed down. She passed Vicksburg Sunday, going down all right.

Captain Ed Howard built fourteen new steamboats last year, and repaired eight others. He has five new ones in course of construction now, with other contracts in sight.

The river is falling at the rate of two inches per hour, a pretty swift slide.

Business down on the wharf only ordinary today. River slipping down the banks as though ground for the occasion. Fourteen feet three inches was the reading this morning.

The John K. Speed has again been selected as the boat to make the Mardi Oras trip to New Orleans on February leaving Cincinnati February 1. Why the company is so persistent in sending the Speed every season to make the Mardi Oras trip when the New South far exceeds her in every particular, and has cabin capacity for fully fifty more people. The New South has fifty-one staterooms, is a magnifi-
